

Sign-up today for the Spring season of the North East Ohio Soccer League played at NC Soccer Club in Hudson. The 8 and under league is designed to be a developmental league without registration hassles of other leagues. Teams that were involved last season were: Aurora, Everest, Ambassadors FC, and NEO United. The league will play a six game schedule ending in mid June. All players will be registered with Ohio North to cover state fees and insurance costs, this is included in the league fee.

This will also help teams that have an interest in participating in tournaments.

The total cost breakdown is shown below.

League Costs

- The fee for the league is $220, includes player registration with OYSAN
- The referee fee of $10 per team will be paid directly to the referee

League Benefits

- Fields are already prepared for your convenience
- Referees will be present every week, no worries about no shows!!
- Games will be on Saturday's or Sunday's (primarily Saturday). (indicate scheduling problems)
- League play will begin May 1st. Inclement weather games may be played indoors! Each team is expected to have a matching uniform with number.
